No. C. 1202—Co. 10-45-15, dated Bangalore, 12th February 1946.

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (2) of Rule 81 of the Defence of India Rules, as applied to Mysore, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja are pleased to direct that the Footwear Control Order, 1945, issued with Notification No. C. 1170—Co. 64-44-2, dated 1st June 1945, with all its amendments so far issued shall be cancelled with effect from the date of this notification.

C. 1208—C. O. 64-45-2, dated Bangalore the 12th February 1946.

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule 2 of Rule 81 of the Defence of India Rules as applied to Mysore, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja are pleased to make the following order and to direct with reference to sub-rule (1) of Rule 49 of the said Rules that notice of the order shall be given by the publication of the same in the Gazette and by the issue of a Press Note summarising and explaining its provisions :—

Short title and extent.

1. (i) This Order may be called the Sulphuric Acid Control Order, 1946.

(ii) It extends to the whole of Mysore.

(iii) The Sulphuric Acid Control Order, 1942, is hereby repealed provided that anything done under any of the provisions of that order shall be deemed to have been done under the corresponding provisions of this Order.

Definitions.

2. In this Order, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) 'Sulphuric acid' means all grades and concentrations of sulphuric acid or oil of vitriol ;

(b) 'licensing authority' means the Controller of Civil Supplies or any officer appointed by him to perform the duties of the Licensing Authority;

(c) 'manufacturer' means a person who manufactures sulphuric acid for sale;

(d) 'form' means a form appended to the Order.

Prohibition of sale except through valid licences.

3. (a) no manufacturer other than manufacturer registered under clause 4 of the Sulphuric Acid Control Order, 1942 shall sell sulphuric acid ; and

(b) no manufacturer registered as aforesaid shall sell or otherwise dispose of and no person shall buy or otherwise acquire sulphuric acid except on the authority of a basic or special sales licence issued under this order by the Licensing Authority.

Registration of manufacturers.

4. (1) Every manufacturer who wishes to sell sulphuric acid other than those registered under clause 4 of the Sulphuric Acid Control Order, 1942 shall, on or before 5th November 1942, make an application for registration in Form 'SA/A' to the Licensing Authority, stating the names and addresses of all persons to whom he supplied sulphuric acid during the calendar year 1944 together with the quantities of each grade supplied. The application shall also state the estimated quantity of sulphuric acid, which he expects to manufacture and make available for sale during the period from 1st February 1946 to 31st March 1946. Every manufacturer shall from time to time as hereafter directed in writing by the Licensing Authority furnish a statement to the Licensing

Authority of the estimated quantities of sulphuric acid which he expects to manufacture and make available for sale during such subsequent period or periods, as the Licensing Authority may indicate in his discretion.

(2) The Licensing Authority, if he sees fit, shall grant a Registration Certificate in Form 'SA/B' and shall issue a basic sales licence in the same Form stating the quantity of each grade of sulphuric acid which the registered manufacturer may supply during the period pecified in the licence and the persons to whom he may supply it.

(3) The Licensing Authority may at any time during the currency of the licence rescind or amend the licence without notice by order in writing to the licence holder.

Power to fix prices.

5. The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette fix from time to time the price or prices at which manufacturers shall supply sulphuric acid to consumers and the Licensing Authority shall, in issuing a licence, quote the price at which the manufacturer shall supply during the period specified in the licence.

Information to consumers of the quantity of Sulphuric Acid and supplier from whom they may purchase.

6. The Licensing Authority shall inform each consumer or person named in a basic sales licence of the name of the manufacturer authorised to supply him with sulphuric acid, together with the quantity of each grade which such manufacturer may supply to him, the period during which and the prices at which the supply shall be made.

Application for special licence.

7. Any consumer or person included in a basic sales licence, who wishes to purchase sulphuric acid in excess of the quantities authorised in respect of him by such licence, and any consumer or person not included in a basic sales licence who wishes to purchase sulphuric acid, shall apply in Form 'SA/C' to the Licensing authority.

Issue of special licences.

8. The Licensing Authority shall pass such orders on each application under Clause 7 as he thinks fit and shall either inform the applicant that his application has been rejected or—

(a) shall issue a licence in Form 'SA/C' for the whole or part of the quantity of sulphuric acid applied for, naming in the licence the supplier from whom the applicant may get his supply, or

(b) if the applicant is not already included in a basic sales licence, and if it is considered suitable, include the applicant in one or other of the basic sales licences already issued and shall specify the quantity of sulphuric acid of each grade which may be supplied to him and shall inform the supplier concerned.

9. The Licensing authority or such other officer as may be appointed in this behalf by the Government may, if he has reason to believe that any person has contravened, is contravening, or is likely to contravene any of the provisions of that order—

(a) require any person to give such information in his possession with respect to any business carried on by that or any other person as he may demand;

(b) inspect or cause to be inspected any books or documents belonging to, or under the control of any person;

(c) enter and search or authorise a police officer not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector to enter and search any premises.

10. If any person with intent to evade the provisions of this order, refuses to give any information lawfully demanded from him under Clause 9 or conceals, destroys, mutilates or defaces any book or other documents, he shall be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this order.

Forfeiture of Stores.

11. If any person contravenes any provisions of this order, any court trying such contravention may in addition to any punishment to which it may sentence him direct that the articles in respect of which the contravention has been committed shall be forfeited to Government.
